Bryan’s Influence on My Decision

Although I did not fully appreciate it at the time, the Christian environment and leadership of Bryan almost unconsciously kept me on a path which would eventually lead to a complete commitment to God and His service. Had I not attended Bryan, I would have entered the service. Because of the lack of discipline in the spiritual area of my life, I most probably would have taken another path in life developed by the influence of the service and those in leadership over me. Bryan had a steady influence on me until I developed the maturing spiritual area of my life. If God did not want me in the ministry, He was going to have to show me something else. I did not know what I had built it up over four years. I looked at my family and the responsibility that was mine there. I came to the conclusion that there was more I should be doing if I was to save it. I am sure that serving God was not really number one on my list of priorities, but I knew I wanted it to be.

The first thing God revealed to me was that my Bible study habits and prayer life were going to have to change. The communication lines between God and myself had a lot of static in them. I could not hear God clearly and I’m not sure God could hear me clearly. As a Christian, my next question was “Am I discerning that if God was really number one in my life and if my desires were to please Him, I should be choosing the spiritual over the secular. If I felt no more called to a ministry a full-time vocation (pastor, missionary, etc.) I entered the Alliance Theological Seminary in April, 1978, and God confirmed His call upon my life to full-time ministry over and over again. New God has given us a growing Christian and Missionary Alliance Church in Moultrie, GA. We praise Him for what He has entrusted into our care.

God’s call upon a person is very definite. What I had to learn was that His call comes to different people in different ways. My vertical relationship to God plays an important role as to whether or not I am able to discern His quiet but definitely audible voice.

When people ask me when did I “feel” the call of God upon my life, I respond by telling them that feelings played a small role. My acknowledgement of God’s call was obedience to His Word—moving from the realm of accepting the Bible as God’s Word to living out the commands and promises in my own personal life. I discovered that God could not effectively guide me unless I was moving. If the direction was wrong, He would correct it if I was earnestly seeking Him, Jesus “Go”; my responsibility is to be obedient to that command. He will show us if we are to fulfill that command as businessmen, teachers, housewives, professors and men and women, laborers in some other capacity. In my case it happened to be as a minister.

BRUCE '47 and WILMA (WALKER) '48 ROGERS report an extra share of responsibility because of Eugene's surgery and delay in returning to Sibut, Central African Republic. They had 40 outstation pastors to attend to a new refresh course, and acquire new literature supplies, followed by several weeks of Bible school and regional Bible conferences for April and May. Their mission has launched a fieldwide evangelization campaign with the goal of reaching every home in 1981 with a witness for Christ. They enjoy continued support and prayer of the government for their ministry at present.

CLARE and GRACE (THEBDIAID) '46 McGUIRE reported the first copies of their new Chinese-Tayal hymnbook in Taiwan. It contains over 600 pages, plus 40 pages of responsive readings, and was completed for publication in June. Clare will continue her correspondence courses and has recently finished her English correspondence courses and has recently finished her English typing and printing for the Gospel of Mark. Two students have translated into Chinese and published by a firm in Hong Kong. Joyce has been working with a committee to enlarge facilities for the Wa Ji Training Centre for mentally handicapped. The family anticipated a Hong Kong to London train adventure on the way back to the States.

WENDALL and JOYCE (HUGHES) '58 KARSEN with their family of four children planned to leave Hong Kong in July to make their furlough home in Whaiston, North Carolina. The family planned to return in July (over 1000 pages) in three years in a five-year secondary school religion education curriculum project. It is being translated into Chinese and published by a firm in Hong Kong. The World Home Bible League has agreed to provide 15,000 special student edition Bibles for free distribution to students using the first and fourth year courses in 1981-82. Wendall was scheduled to lead a 2½-week study tour to China in June to visit Amos where they church, the Reformed Church of America, began giving the Gospel to the Chinese people in 1842. Joyce has been working with a committee to enlarge facilities for the Wa Ji Training Centre for mentally handicapped. The family anticipated a Hong Kong to London train adventure on the way back to the States.

MURVIN GERBER '59 has a new position as principal of the Martinsville High School in Martinsville, Illinois, following his position as assistant principal in Creston, Indiana. He and his wife, Dora, have two sons, Mark and Adam.

J. Torn '01 and MARIE (GIBSON) '63 WILKINS are living in Davao, Mindanao, Philippines, where they are the property of Epworth Memorial United Methodist Church on the campus of Epworth Children's Home. They went to see their home in Colombia. They will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary in 1981. The Williamses have four daughters—Karen LeAnn, 19; Sherri Lynn, 17; Jennifer Leigh, 16; and Melissa Ruth, 15.

RAY, 23, Randy, 21, and Ron, 19, in the States. The family is in need of financial help. The family anticipated a Hong Kong to London trip for him and his family. The family is in need of financial help. The family anticipated a Hong Kong to London trip for him and his family.
